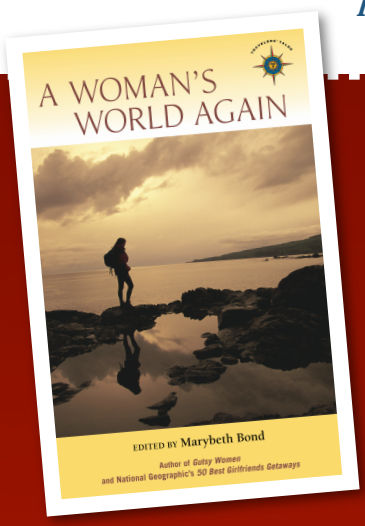
2007 NEW RELEASE

A WOMAN'S WORLD AGAIN

More True Stories of World Travel



"A Woman's World Again IS MY ATTEMPT TO REACH OUT TO FEMALE TRAVELERS WITH ENCOURAGEMENT AND INSPIRATION…TO GO OUT AND EXPLORE OUR BEAUTIFUL PLANET."

–MARYBETH BOND

In the sequel to the National Bestseller* A Woman's World*, Marybeth Bond once again leads us around the globe with a new collection of stories from women on the go.

EDITED BY MARYBETH BOND

Dive deep into each of these thirty-three stories, guaranteed to make you want to grab a backpack, suitcase, or maybe just your car keys and get on the road. These women give a fresh face to each city and country, while leaving their own indelible mark upon each place. Make authentic silver jewelry with a craftsman in Niger or honor a historical figure in Mississippi with a woman confronting a South that haunted her childhood. Whether white-water rafting with strangers, taking a pilgrimage alone, or tracing a family history, these women are not afraid to embrace it with refreshing and sometimes heart-breaking candor. If you seek adventure or just an adventurous read—dance, sing, flirt, drive, hike, climb, jump, cry, and dream your way into these women's lives—they might just inspire you to take your own fantastic trip.

$17.95, 312 pages ISBN: 1932361-52-9
Publication: October 2007

For more information visit www.travelersales.com or send an email to publicity@travelerstales.com.
Travelers' Tales, an imprint of Solas House, Inc., 853 Alma Street, Palo Alto, CA 94301 (650) 462-2110

Getting to know Marybeth Bond

After her first book,* A Woman's World*, Marybeth has been on a career whirlwind. She followed her Lowell Thomas Award-winning first book with* Gutsy Women*, an advice and travel wisdom book that landed her on* The Oprah Winfrey Show*. Marybeth's other titles include* A Woman's Asia, A Woman's Europe, Gutsy Mamas*, and* A Mother's World*. She is a nationally known travel expert, speaker, and contributor to many major publications.